

CONTRACT FOR WESTERN PACIFIC

W. H. Brown & Bros. of New York to Build Gould Road.

TO OPEN WESTERN OFFICE

EASTERN ADVICES SAY DIRT WILL FLY IN FEW WEEKS.

New York, May 11.—The Wall Street Journal tomorrow will say: Walston H. Brown & Bros., the firm which has the contract for the interborough tunnel under the East river to the battery in New York and to Brooklyn, will build the entire Western Pacific road. Until contracts with the bankers have been finally arranged no definite announcement of construction plans can be made. Every detail, however, is expected to be finished up within about ten days, and shortly thereafter dirt will fly along the route of the proposed Gould line to the Pacific.

Walston H. Brown will open an office in the west and personally take charge of construction.

The Brown firm has considerable experience in railroad building, having built the Nickel Plate, Lake Erie & Western, and several other lines.

Music and Drama

Ysaye has been known to the music loving world for many years, and his reputation as a great violinist has long been firmly established. Last night he proved himself worthy of all the flattering words the musical critics of both continents have said, when they call him an artist of the highest rank. His technical skill in the most complex and complicated passages that ever came from the elastic fingers of his hands, his rare intelligence, his independent of the interpretations of others, while his breadth and strength are combined with an exquisite delicacy and refinement of touch that makes his work perfect.

The first number, "Kreutzer Sonata" was inspiring, the strength and vigor, the brilliancy of the presto movement, and finally the deep, soulful tones of the adagio, the absolute mastery of the technical difficulties with the rapid attention of the hearers.

The sweetly tender "Abendlied" by Schumann would bring the tears to the eyes of even one who does not love music, if such a barbarian exists. This was followed by Ernst's "Airs Hongrois," in which he again showed his mastery. After the crash and power of chords and octaves, he would fairly dazzle the audience with cadences that seemed only the faintest ripple and ran like pearls from his fingers.

No wonder the audience was enthusiastic. As an encore he played a dainty melody in which the piano seemed to sing with the utmost tenderness of expression. The final number "Ballade et Polonoise" by Chopin, was done with an easy grace of expression, a flowing and fluent technical efficiency. At the same time he carefully followed a great richness of sound as well as fullness of tone.

There was hearty commendation for Debussy, the accompanist, who also demonstrated his ability as a pianist of note by his superior rendition of three numbers: "Allegro appassionato" by Saint-Saens, "Romance Sans Paroles" by Tchaikovsky, and "Valse Capricieuse" by Strauss-Touss.

His accompaniments are sympathetic and faultless and the interpretation given to each of his solos merited the richest approval.

"A Brother's Crime," another bit of sensational melodrama, opened at the Grand last night and was well presented by the Salt Lake Swain. The piece is full of exciting situations and spectacular developments, which finally result in the confusion of the villain and the glorification and happiness of the upright characters. The Salt Lake Swain company continues to hold its audience night after night. "A Brother's Crime" will be on the road tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night.

Miss June Mathis, the clever young Salt Lake actress, has been given the part of a country girl in a new play, entitled "Eighteen Miles From Home." First written for William Hodge and will be produced under the management of Liebman & Co. The piece will open in Rochester on May 18 for a week and will then be taken on the road for ten days. If it proves successful on the road it will be put on for a run in New York.

The sale of seats for Phil Margret's benefit opens at the theatre this morning.

Emil Ankermiller, representing Nat Goodwin, who appears next week, is in the city.

ARTIST WITH A HEART.

The Great Ysaye Makes a Lifelong Friend of Miss Moretta Bagley of Idaho.

Miss Moretta Bagley of Montpelier, Ida., is the proud possessor of an autograph photograph of M. Ysaye, the great violinist. The photograph was delivered with a kiss by the great musician in person. Although Miss Bagley was present when she made no protest.

Miss Bagley is 8 years of age and a daughter of J. J. Bagley, former attorney general of Idaho. Judge Bagley is in Salt Lake on business and brought Miss Moretta down to visit her sister, Miss Van Home Bagley, who is a student at the L. D. S. university. Last night the Bagleys listened to M. Ysaye, playing at the Salt Lake theatre, and afterward dropped into the Vienna cafe for lunch. M. Ysaye and his party were there. The genial Belgian virtuoso has five children of his own, and Miss Moretta's attractive face soon engaged his attention. It was not long until Ysaye had Miss Moretta on his knee and was whispering in conversation with her. When they parted M. Ysaye produced a portrait of himself and a fountain pen. He applied the pen to the picture, which after being handed to Miss Moretta, was found to bear the following inscription, written in French: "To the charming, sweet Miss Moretta Bagley, from the fat violinist, Eugene Ysaye."

Miss Bagley says she intends to keep the picture until she is grown up.

Judge Bagley came to Salt Lake to attend a meeting of the Shoshone Power company today.

A CREAMY FOOD

Scott's Emulsion is cod liver oil prepared as a food—not a food like bread or meat, but more like cream; in fact, it is the cream of cod liver oil. At the same time it is a blood-maker, a nerve tonic and a flesh-builder. But principally it is food for tired and weak digestions, for all who are fat-starved and thin. It is pleasant to take; children like it and ask for more.

RUSSIANS AND JAPANESE BOTH CLAIM SOME SLIGHT SUCCESSES

St. Petersburg, May 11.—General Linovitch, in a dispatch to Emperor Nicholas dated May 9, says:

"Our advanced posts along the line from Podysousche to Shihouza were attacked by the enemy's cavalry on May 7. The Japanese were repulsed. They renewed the attack May 8, but were again unsuccessful.

"On May 9 our cavalry advanced in the direction of the Shihetzy mines which were occupied by Japanese who, in the face of our artillery fire and a turning movement westward of the mines were driven back. The Japanese were subsequently driven back, retreating to the village of Madiopu.

"Tokio, May 12.—The following telegram from Army headquarters in Manchuria was officially given out today:

"On the morning of May 9 the enemy, consisting of two regiments of infantry, five squadrons of cavalry and one battery of artillery made an attack in the vicinity of Yingcheng, from the direction of Nanshanhengtzu, which is fifteen miles east of Yingcheng.

"At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the enemy made a resolute attack. Under the cover of the artillery the infantry advanced within 100 metres of our line, whereupon our garrison assumed the offensive, attacked and dispersed the enemy.

"The enemy left sixty killed and 100 wounded on the field. Besides these losses the Japanese clothing carried by them was a luminous example of patriotism and soldierly fidelity and of which the Evangelische Kirchen Zeitung of May 8 published another version as explained to the Berlin Neueste Nachrichten by a person present was not intended to be made public. The official communiqué had spoken of the courage of the Japanese in such a way as to permit the recruits to infer that it made little difference whether they were a Christian or a heathen. The emperor thereupon spontaneously undertook to correct this impression.

ALLEGED CRITICISM OF RUSSIAN ARMY BY EMPEROR OF GERMANY

Berlin, May 11.—Emperor William, addressing the higher officers during the brief report published at the time he cited the Japanese as a luminous example of patriotism and soldierly fidelity and of which the Evangelische Kirchen Zeitung of May 8 published another version as explained to the Berlin Neueste Nachrichten by a person present was not intended to be made public. The official communiqué had spoken of the courage of the Japanese in such a way as to permit the recruits to infer that it made little difference whether they were a Christian or a heathen. The emperor thereupon spontaneously undertook to correct this impression.

MAKES GRAVE CHARGES

Alabama Portland Cement Company Will Try to Collect $81,400 From Thomas C. Cairns.

In the Third district court yesterday papers were filed in a suit brought by the Alabama Portland Cement company against Thomas C. Cairns to recover damages in the sum of $81,400. According to the complaint the plaintiff employed the defendant to construct a cement plant at Demopolis, Ala., Jan. 3, 1901, and to purchase all the necessary machinery for the plant and to manage it.

The plaintiff company further alleges that the defendant was employed on the representation that he was experienced in the business, and was thoroughly acquainted with the kind of machinery needed for such a plant. It is alleged that the machinery which he purchased was unfit for the successful operation of the works and had to be replaced by other apparatus, all of which involved considerable expense and which delayed the prosecution of the work. The company demands the damages stated, basing its claim to that extent on the ground that it suffered a financial loss to the amount mentioned through the dereliction of the defendant.

THREE CASES ARE ENDED.

Quick Work on Damage Suits in the Federal Court.

Three cases on the federal court calendar were dismissed yesterday afternoon on the motion of the plaintiff's attorneys and one was continued for the trial.

In the case of Isaac Hubbard against the Daly-West Mining company stipulations were made between the parties and the case dismissed at the instance of the plaintiff.

In the case of Samuel Potis against the Southern Pacific Railroad company, and also the case of Peter Potis, administrator of the estate of Samuel Potis, against the Southern Pacific Railroad company were dismissed at the plaintiff's costs after the jury had been empaneled and several witnesses examined.

The case of John Contos, administrator of the estate of L. Maltos against the Southern Pacific company was continued for the trial.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL.

J. C. Peltier Will Fight to the End Against Sentence.

Motion for a new trial for J. C. Peltier will be heard before Judge John A. Marshall in the federal court at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and at the same time he will be sentenced on three counts for impersonating a post-office inspector. The motion will be made by Judge O. W. Powers on the grounds that the evidence in the case against him did not show that he impersonated an officer with intent to defraud the government and therefore cannot be held under the United States statute.

Court Notes.

John G. Willis of Montana was yesterday admitted to the bar of the supreme court.

The supreme court yesterday denied a rehearing in the case of the Oregon Short Line Railway company, respondent, against W. R. Jones and others, appellants. The litigation involved the condemnation and taking of land by the railroad company. R. Jones and several others of the same name were dissatisfied with the amounts awarded them and appealed to the supreme court, which sustained the verdicts rendered in the lower court. They then asked for a rehearing.

ANXIOUS FOR RELATIVES.

W. R. Clark Viciously Interested in the Oklahoma Disaster.

W. R. Clark, the well known druggist of Sugar, was one of the most anxious men in Salt Lake yesterday. His father, mother, two sisters and one brother are living near Snyder, Oklahoma, the town that is reported destroyed by the tornado. Clark made every possible effort to reach his relatives by telegraph, but to no avail. The wires were down so that communication was practically cut off. Later reports from the scene of the disaster giving the list of the dead and injured brought relief to the Clark family here as no person of that name was on the list. At the same time Mr. Clark will await definite information from his relatives with deep anxiety.

UNIVERSITY NOT INVOLVED.

President Kingsbury Says Logan Construction Is Erroneous.

To The Salt Lake Herald:

In the last edition of The Herald under the heading of "Trying to Out President Kerr" is a statement giving the list of the University of Utah has planned to unseat President Kerr. In order to crush the Agricultural college, etc. There is absolutely no truth in this statement that the university has anything whatsoever to do in trying to oust President Kerr.

J. T. KINGSBURY.

The statement to which President Kingsbury takes exception is the following in a special from Logan to The Herald: "Here it is construed to be a part of the university's plan to destroy the college."

DIES IN A CAVE-IN

Swan Eliason, a Veteran Miner. Meets Death in United States Mining Company Property.

Bingham, May 11.—Swan Eliason, a miner, while working a lease from the United States Mining company this morning, was killed by a cave-in. No one was near him at the time of the accident and consequently it is impossible to tell just how the accident occurred.

Several men employed in a nearby drift happened to pass the spot towards 10 o'clock and saw a foot protruding from a mass of rocks and began to extricate the body. It was dangerous work for the reason that the rock formation around the spot was in a shaky condition, but late in the afternoon they managed to remove the remains.

Eliason was about 50 years of age and was an old-timer in the camp. It is said that he had had a number of half-breath escapes in the past, some of them similar to the one which ended his life. So far as is known in the camp he leaves no relatives in this vicinity.

OYAMA MADE A FEINT

Recent Advance Was for the Purpose of Locating the Russian Army.

Gunshu Pass, May 11.—The Japanese advance now appears to have been a feint to ascertain the strength of the Russian outposts, which have again been pushed forward on the left at Lafangol, Edayad and Tuzol and along the center line from Podizusuch, where the Japanese attacked the Russian mines and the May 8, but were repulsed. The day, in order to oust the Japanese from their three mile south of Chantatu, supported by artillery, moved forward under cover of the Russian mines and the lines were turned, the Japanese retiring first to Shinyanzon and later to Madiopu.

On the right flank the situation is unchanged. The Russian front resembles a crescent with the center resting on the railroad and the horns pointing south. Prisoners say the new troops from Japan are old men and youths. They give the Japanese losses at Mukden as 12,353 killed and about 50,000 wounded. Oyama was at the front during the recent activity, making his headquarters at Chantatu.

Mothers Are Helped THEIR HEALTH RESTORED

Happiness of Thousands of Homes Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's Advice.

A devoted mother seems to listen to every call of duty excepting the supreme one that tells her to guard her health, and before she realizes it some derangement of the female organs has manifested itself, and nervousness and irritability take the place of happiness and amiability.

Mrs. Ph. Hoffman

Tired, nervous and irritable, the mother is unfit to care for her children, and her condition ruins the child's disposition and reacts upon herself.

The mother should not be blamed, as she no doubt is suffering with backache, headache, bearing-down pains or displacement, making life a burden.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for this condition. It strengthens the female organs and permanently cures all displacements and irregularities.

Such testimony as the following should convince women of its value:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I suffered for eight years with ovarian troubles. I was nervous, tired and irritable, and it did not seem as though I could stand it any longer, as I had five children to care for. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it has entirely cured me. I cannot thank you enough for your letter of advice and for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. Mrs. Ph. Hoffman, 100 Himrod Street, Brooklyn, N. Y."
